

SKIN IN THE GAME

THURSDAY 15TH OCTOBER 9 PM
ONLINE PLAY READING

Paul Westwood made his play debut last year. It received great reviews.

Your chance to hear this thriller, pour yourself a drink and settle down and join us for a play reading of SKIN IN THE GAME.

Three estranged siblings, living on the edges of society and surviving addiction and abuse meet to sell their father's council flat to pay for his care home...but what unfolds is something more terrifying.....

'A riveting and gritty drama that also turns out to be a thriller with a uniquely clever plot, great writing.'

Act drop ★★★★★

'Tense, ominous, and hard hitting ... a must see for anyone who loves a thriller'

London Pub Theatres ★★★★★

'Looking on from the edges of the fringe theatre's upstairs room is like stumbling across something grim in the attic but being too gripped to make a dash forit'

London Theatre 1 ★★★★★

'Westwood's tale of addiction's vampiric invasion on the fortunes of its host throws interesting new shades onto the familiar canvass.....Skin in the Game is a pulsating piece of theatre'

Islington Gazette ★★★★★

This play contains extremely strong language throughout

Cast:

Phil Hooks

Kryisia Mansfield

Thomas Deller

Trevor Oakes

Written by Paul Westwood

Zoom host / Technical - John Anderson

Producer/Director- Irrational Theatre/Paula Chitty